

Word / Phrase	Definition
Key points	the most important ideas or facts.
An entry-level job	a first job for someone new, with simple tasks.
To learn basics	to study or practice simple and important things first.
A job that may seem small	a job that looks easy or not important.
To give experience	to help someone get skills and knowledge from doing a job.
A basic task	a simple job or work to do.
To be ready for bigger responsibilities	to learn and practice so you can do harder or more important work later.
To gain experience	to learn by doing something.
To develop key skills	to get better at important abilities.
To speak politely	to talk in a kind and respectful way.
To be patient	to wait calmly and not get angry.
An experience	something that happens to you and you learn from it.
To grow in one's career	to get better jobs and more responsibility at work.
To practice a task	to do a job or activity again and again to get better.
To get a promotion	to get a better or higher job at work.
A new opportunity	a chance to do something new or good.
To advance (in a job)	to get a better job or more responsibility.
To guide a team	to help a group of people do their work.
To look after a department	to take care of one part of a company.
To be responsible for something	to take care of a task or job.
To show dedication	to work hard and care about your job.
To move up (career)	to get a better position at work.
To be skilled	to be good at something.
To build soft skills	to practice skills like talking, listening, and working with others.
To trust somebody	to believe someone is honest and will do the right thing.
To improve oneself	to get better at skills or work.
To support a team	to help a group of people with their work.
Dedication	working hard and caring about your job.
To give experiences to guests	to help visitors see, do, or enjoy something.
Passion	a strong feeling for something you like or enjoy.
People skills	the ability to talk and work well with others.
To enjoy helping people	to like giving help to others.
To be responsible	to take care of tasks and do them well.
To be reliable	people can trust you to do your work.
To succeed	to reach a goal or do something well.
To make guests return	to give a good experience so visitors come back.
To combine qualities, knowledge, experience	to use your skills, learning, and past work together.
To be respected	people admire you because you are good and honest.